SIX MASSART FACULTY MEMBERS PROMOTED!!

Upon the recommendation of President William O'Neil and based upon the positive results of our College's campus review procedures, the following faculty members were recommended for promotion at the College's April Board of Trustees meeting:

- John Holland, from Instructor of Media and Performing Arts to Assistant Professor.
- Paul Celli, from Associate Professor of Painting to Professor.
- Nancy Cusack, from Associate Professor of our CORE Program to Professor. Nancy is also the Chairperson of the CORE Program.
- Meg Hickey, from Associate Professor of Architectural Design to Professor. Meg is also the Chairperson of our Design Dept.
- Jana Longacre, from Associate Professor of Fine Arts 3D, to Professor.
- Jill Slosburg-Ackerman, from Associate Professor of Fine Arts 3D to Professor.

The members of our Board of Trustees unanimously approved all six promotions which will begin this coming September 1st. The MassArt Community extends its sincere congratulations to all.

ALUMNA "IN THE NEWS"

Linda Lichtman, Painting Dept. grad from the class of '74 here at MassArt, was featured in the "One of a Kind" profiles column in The Boston Globe, on March 31st. Lichtman recently created a huge, colorful stained glass window for the Lyndon B. Johnson Apartments for the Elderly in Cambridge. The work reflects the artist's interests in desert imagery and the abstract forms that recall Matisse and Picasso, rather than ". . .the kitschy, Son-of-Tiffany designs that give her medium a bad name in serious art circles," writes Christine Temin of the Globe. Next, Lichtman will be working on three windows for Rosie's Place, the shelter for homeless women. She also teaches in the Somerville Schools afterschool program and has work included in "International Flatglass: 36 Women from 12 Countries," a show currently traveling Europe. Linda Lichtman says her goal is, "to do public art as a fine art - in stained glass."

AIDS AND ACTIVISM THE SUBJECT AT MASSART FORUM

Noted AIDS authorities and activists will participate in a forum titled "AIDS and Boston" on this Friday, April 21st, in the Trustees Room, 11th floor, Tower Building. The participants in the forum will include Douglas Crimp, editor of the landmark 1988 book, AIDS: Cultural Analysis and Cultural Activism, and is the editor of M.I.T. Press journal, October; Cindy Patton, author of Sex and Germs: The Politics of AIDS; Sonya Heard, outreach worker for Boston City Hospital's "Project Trust"; and the panel moderator will be Jay Deacon, staffperson to the AIDS Action Working Group of the Unitarian Universalist Association. This program is free and open to the public. MassArt students are encouraged to attend, since the AIDS epidemic is the primary global public health crisis of our time. "AIDS and Boston" will concentrate on finding responses to this crisis which can have real impact.

LOST!!!

A grey sketch book w/ a black binder, containing sketches of bears, babies, and storybook characters, lost in Charettes on April 10th, at 1pm. PLEASE RETURN ASAP - this senior illustrator needs this book for job interviews! Call x388 or see Patti in T651.

LIBRARY NOTICE:

Remember!! Be sure to take care of all library obligations before Registration Day on Wed., April 26th. If you have any questions concerning your library status, please check with the Library staff at the Circulation Desk before registering. A library obligation places a "hold" on your registration!

ATTENTION ALL FACULTY & ADMINISTRATION:

If you need to rent or purchase commencement caps, gowns, and/or hoods, place your order at the bookstore in the Tower Bldg. now. The deadline is this Thursday, April 20th!

At Last... PAPER RECYCLING AT MASSART!

MassArt has instituted an ongoing recycling drive for white office paper and computer paper. Keep helping save all white paper! Collection will take place in individual offices; full boxes will then be moved from the offices to a temporary storage area, where the paper will be picked up by the recycling company, Earthworm. Everyday, see your nearest office for the recycling box.

REPRESENT MASSART!!

The Admissions staff wants slides of your work for their presentation to high school students. Give us your best... inspire teenagers to apply. Wow them with your efforts. Remember when you wondered what art shcool would be like? Help us tell them. Impress and influence the art students of tommorrow. Contact the Admissions Office for more info.
